Auditors' Report.

We have this day examined the accounts of the Selectmen and Treasurer of the town of South Hampton and hereby certify to the correctness of the same, with vouchers for all claims paid, apparently to their satisfaction; also we have examined the accounts of Collector Wyman and find that of the amount committed to him for collection he has been properly allowed for the sums shown in his report as collected, etc.; that his book for 1900 shows $5.54 as not yet collected. For 1901, shows $351.23 as not yet collected.

The other Collectors did not present their accounts to be audited.

FRANK P. FORSAITH, } Auditors.

School Report.

In January our schools closed with a school year of twenty-eight weeks. As the great mass of boys and girls now finish their schooling in the lower grades, much more schooling than this amount is needed.

We were fortunate in having our teachers graduates of High Schools and of the State Normal School. Pupils completed the studies of Arithmetic and Algebra, also English History and Latin were taken up to good advantage.

The pupil of the small school lacks that emulation and competition so essential to progress which will be afforded by contact with a larger number of children. Again the words of our State Superintendent can be heeded. "If a rural school has twenty-five pupils, a competent teacher can be economically employed. In a good community such a school has the advantages not possessed by village or city schools."

ATTENDANCE.

The average attendance at the different schools was as follows:

	first term,	second term,	third term,
Peak,	6	5	5
Centre,	13	9	7
Upper Village,	11	10	7

Report of Library Trustees.

The money appropriated by the town for the use of the Library has been expended for the most part for books that seem to the trustees to represent the best class of fiction literature. We have also received a valuable donation of books from George W. French, Esq., principal of the Brooklyn, N. Y., truant school, who thus expresses his kindly remembrance of his native town.

We are also indebted to the Rev. E. S. Cotton for a fine illustrated volume.

The following is the list of books added during the past year:
